Dear Mr. Schiltz:

RE: Brown Traffic Products, Inc.
Davenport, Iowa
EPA RCRA ID# IAD051001337

Letter of Warning

On January 27, 1998, representatives of the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) inspected your facility. The inspection was conducted under the authority of Section 3007 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA). My staff has reviewed the inspection report and has determined that violations of RCRA were documented.

Enclosed is a list of violations. Please carefully read this list and correct these violations. While you are not required to submit anything at this time, you are responsible for correcting these violations. Please note that your correction of these violations does not prevent EPA from pursuing appropriate enforcement actions, including penalties, for violations discovered as a result of the inspection. The penalties sought in such an enforcement action can be up to $27,500 per violation per day of non-compliance.

If there are any questions regarding this matter, please contact Royce B. Kemp at (913) 551-7551.

Sincerely yours,

JoAnn M. Heiman, Chief
RCRA Enforcement and State Programs Branch
Air, RCRA, and Toxics Division

The United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is obligated, under the Freedom of Information Act, to release information collected during inspections to persons who submit requests for that information. The Freedom of Information Act does, however, have provisions that allow EPA to withhold certain confidential business information from public disclosure. To claim protection for information gathered during this inspection you must request that the information be held CONFIDENTIAL and substantiate your claim in writing by demonstrating that the information meets the requirements in 40 CFR 2, Subpart B. The following criteria in Subpart B must be met:

1. Your company has taken measures to protect the confidentiality of the information, and it intends to continue to take such measures.
2. No statute specifically requires disclosure of the information.
3. Disclosure of the information would cause substantial harm to your company's competitive position.

Information that you claim confidential will be held as such pending a determination of applicability by EPA.

I have received this Notice and DO NOT want to make a claim of confidentiality at this time.
